DISC-029

DISCUSSION OF LIBRARY TAX LEVY AND MINIMUM APPROPRIATION

Herold reported that Corporation Counsel opined that the Library Board has no authority to implement policy regarding minimum appropriation WI State Statute 43.64. Visitor Chris Hopp pointed out that the Board could reduce the DCLS appropriation. President Owens stated that DCLS needs to provide service to the county and that the appropriation includes reimbursements to Dane County libraries. Hopp asked how the library levy is arrived at; President Owens confirmed that it was the setting of the Dane County Library Service budget that includes reimbursements for libraries, as well as operations. Hopp asked what expenses qualify as fundable for minimum appropriation; Herold responded that some library budgets include fees for other department services to the library, such as public works or payroll administration.

This discussion was placed on file.
