10	Unit's Birth to 3 Program. These funds will support child and family-focused pandemic recovery
11	support for families enrolled in the Birth to 3 Program to minimize the effect of prolonged
12	financial and social isolation stress experienced by these families due to the COVID-19
13	pandemic.
14
15	The grant funding will be utilized as approved by the Wisconsin Department of Health Services
16	to provide nominal financial assistance for everyday items and activities needed to boost a
17	family's quality of life, to include care packages and gift cards provided by two existing
18	contracted agencies serving these families to help reduce costs associated with transportation,
19	essential personal care items, household items, food, etc. Additionally, the Project will allow
20	DCDHS Birth to 3 program administrators to negotiate additional resources through an
21	extensive network of providers for families to participate and take advantage of therapeutic and
22	counseling resources at no cost.
23
24	The total amount of funds awarded to DCDHS by the State of Wisconsin for this initiative is
25	$55,000 for the period of October 1, 2022 – December 31, 2023. This resolution authorizes the
