Pulvermacher explained that if someone comes in for a CUP and is denied by the town, DC will also deny. The only recourse for the applicant is to go to Board of Adjustments or wait a year and reapply or sue the town. Dane County wants to create an appeal process so they wouldn't have to wait a year. He recommends opposing DC from making any changes to the process. Board recommended that we get the language of the changes from Roger Lane. Motion made by (Pulvermacher/Laufenberg) to send letter to Roger Lane, DCZ, opposing DC making any changes to the CUP process. All ayes, carried.
