Minutes - Final Unless Amended by Committee

Health & Human Needs Committee

Consider:

Who benefits? Who is burdened?

Who does not have a voice at the table?

How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?

F. Presentations

1. Journey Mental Health Update

Lynn Brady and Alan Zoellner gave an update on activities and events offered related to employee engagement. Colleen Clark Buss, Chief HR Officer, and Tanya Lettman-Shue talked about the avenues that employees have available to talk to management about workplace concerns. They talked about consumer socio-economic issues, demographics served, insurance obstacles, generational trends affecting employees, fundraising efforts, etc. Kuhn asked for a list of organizations in partnership with Journey Mental Health. They also mentioned the robust in house training programs that are offered for staff and how county, state and federal level changes prove difficult for staff.

G. Reports to Committee

1. Director's Report

- Staff is working on a budget implementation master list with over 80 initiatives.
- We are in partnership with Public Health to disseminate Narcan through voluntary staff trainings.
- The Youth Commission summit was well attended and well reviewed.
- Human Services Board is interested in reviewing employee recruitment and retention.
- There will soon be a number of new CPS hires.
- Michele Dickinson is getting certified in the LEAN process to apply it to the Department hiring process.
- Staff is working on an annual report with 2019 data which will be available in spring.
Kuhn requested a summary of Human Services accomplishments for the year.
