F. Items Requiring Committee Action

Repositioning Trespassing Signs to Apply to the Terrace of the East Entrance (MLK, Jr. Blvd Doors) of the City County Building

John Bauman Dan Lowndes, Dane County Risk Manager, addresses the committee. He spoke of behavior on the Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd side of building, including urination and defecation, as well as alcohol and drug use on the porch. The Madison Police Department has suggested turning the no trespassing signs to face the street. Then the police department would enforce the hours posted on outside of building; not just inside.

Jim Rhymer with Dane County Facilities Management was available to address questions. He spoke of the issues in cleaning the deck outside the City County Building.

Discussion ensued.

The following individuals addressed the committee in opposition of posting no trespassing signs, mentioning the need for services and housing options, the improvement with the portapotty, and the community that lives outside the building:

*Supervisor Michelle Ritt
Supervisor Heidi Wegleitner
Katherine Ackley
