F. Board Member Reports

1. Geraldine Davenport - WISE Program

Davenport brought up her concern over the funding for the WISE program and the importance of it.

Fischer reported the funding comes from the Federal Government to the State which then contracts for the program. This program serves Dane County but is not funded by the county.

Fischer has been in contact with Sonja Lindquist, who runs the WISE program, the funding has been withheld from the Federal government since August 1 but the program has not been eliminated just put on hold.

Discussion continued and further explained.

2. Phil Saunders - Discussion and Exploration of a Flexible Property Tax Program for Senior Homeowners

Saunders spoke on residents in his neighborhood, he noticed a number of people are unable to take care of their homes.

He wondered about a flexible property tax for disadvantaged people.

Saunders investigated and found out it requires an amendment to the constitution of the State of Wisconsin.

Golden said the City has a reverse mortgage program - allows seniors to borrow against the equity in their house.

Golden explained there is further funding for other programs to do such things as home improvement.

Discussion continued and this is a possible guest speaker topic in the future.
