

Dane County

Minutes - Final Unless Amended by Committee

Community Justice Council

Consider:

Who benefits? Who is burdened?

Who does not have a voice at the table?

How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?

Disorderly conduct bookings in the Jail

Tamarine Cornelius, CJC Research Analyst discusses the Disorderly Conduct Booking Analysis. Discussion ensues around person level versus case level detail; different age populations and varying locations. Requests for CJC to consider a follow up analysis a year from date, to include any policy or program changes. Discussion around what the Dane County will do with community members to negate the need for law enforcement intervention.

Public Comment: Carousel Bayrd, of the Dane County Executive's Office, comments on the request to complete the analysis. Is available for any questions.

Status on CJC strategic plan, by Justice Management Institute

Thomas Eberly and Aimee Wickman of Justice Management Institute share slide deck. Review of the strategic plan process from CJC stakeholder 1:1 interviews, to initial workgroup discussion items for full consideration of the CJC. Requests CJC members to allow staff/community to continue to contribute to three areas: Re-entry; Pretrial Alternatives to Incarceration; Behavioral Health and Substance Use. Workgroup follow up will occur the week of August 4, 2025. Final Draft Recommendations to the CJC in September of 2025.
