Hi Amy and Matt,

This is Erin (my husband Ron was the shy guy in the tree stand, and we met at the Town meeting). I just wanted to reach out and thank you for your letter dated April 9th Very helpful information, because you're right, there has absolutely been some inaccurate information about the planned use of your building, and dare I say, perhaps some lobbying in the neighborhood against it. As I said to you when we met at the Town board meeting, Ron and I attended to learn more and get the facts. I feel we have been educated more appropriately now.. For what it's worth, I want to thank you for being so transparent and upfront about this project in our neighborhood and I have zero issues with your business expansion. I wish you both all the best.
