Ragland spoke to the motion.

Dogs are accommodated in other areas. The priority is the health and welfare of the worker. It would be a privilege, not a right. He urges the members to approve the policy.

Baldehy asked, What is the reporting policy for complaints? Ragland responded: The city is looking at an administrative policy. All city workers would need to abide by rules. M. Paulsen from the City Attorney's office indicated that the work is being done. Schauer stated that if there are issues with implementation, then CCLC would revisit. Furman expressed concerns stating that it put employees in a difficult position and it will be hard to manage. Ragland believes that one can solve these problems through rules.

Baldehy: The city will address concerns, so he feels better. If it is not working well, we will revisit it. The survey convinced him. Let's give it a try.

Kostelic asked, Do any other city facilities have this policy? Ragland noted that they will. The Municipal Building will (Ragland believes) rarely be used. M. Paulsen: The dogs will be on leashes or in kennels at all times. There will be an annual survey of employees of each department to see if there are concerns. Schauer: We can rescind it if it is not working.

Discussion Ensued:

Add Section: 7.7 Baldehy/Schauer: This policy shall be reviewed by CCLC annually 5-2 (Furman, Nelson).

Add Section 7.6 (2) (a) (1) Enis/Baldehy: Delete this section so that the only dogs allowed are employee dogs 6-1 (Furman).

Nelson spoke against the the policy and suggested doing a trial policy at the Madison Municipal building. He recommended going slow.

Schauer: The county's employees will not be able to do this.

Kostelic: Correct.

Schauer supports it.

Policy as amended approved 4-3 (Furman, Nelson and Kostelic)
