

Logic model

JFF/PHMDC Public health nurse collaboration | APRIL 2018

Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Short term outcomes	Longer term outcomes
Public health nurse JFF social worker Partner agencies PHMDC PPE data and evaluation support Community based providers Evidence based home visiting models Neighborhood-level coalitions	Assessment of community strengths and areas for opportunity Identify gaps and prioritize areas for action Strategize with JFF social worker to identify innovative referrals and interventions based on client experiences Foster linkages with organizations that serve families in the neighborhood Identify funding opportunities to support existing community organizations Community-level intervention TBD after assessment	# of referrals from JFF to existing PHMDC programs (NFP, PNCC, STI, etc.) # of referrals from PHN to culturally relevant/underutilized community MCH supports (African American Breastfeeding Alliance, Harambee Village Doulas, Centro Hispano Promotoras, etc.) # of referrals from JFF to health systems Inventory of partnership activities	Increase in supportive community structures matching community needs Increase in collaboration of community stakeholders Increased number of families linked to culturally relevant services that improve maternal and child health	Decrease in pre-term birth Decrease in violence