Chair Corrigan proposed that the Executive Committee move forward with a study of private water wells in Dane County, similar to the SWIGG study. A study, report, and recommendations would be used to inform policy recommendations based on findings of the study.

James Tye, Executive Director of the Clean Lakes Alliance, spoke in support of the County assessing the water quality of private drinking wells in Dane County.

Topics discussed included:

- How many private water wells are there in Dane County?*
- Are any wells contaminated? If so, with what and from what source(s)?*
- What testing results can be reported to the public?*
- Are there "problem areas" for wells in the county?*
- Policy and other interventions to ensure safe drinking water for all Dane County residents*

Next steps:

Staff was directed to:

- Discuss the draft proposal with Land and Water Resources Department, Extension, and Public Health to determine possible approaches and costs for gathering the information.*

Executive Committee members will also bring any additional program evaluation topic proposals to the next Executive Committee meeting on June 6th.

DISCUSSION OF COUNTY BOARD OFFICE SPACE DESIGN

Karin Peterson-Thurlow presented a presentation on ideas for the new County Board Office space design and solicited suggestions and comments from the members.

Design work and then construction will begin on the new space in late 2019-early 2020. She will be having conversations with Supervisors over the next few months to get further feedback. There will be regular briefings on this topic to the Executive Committee.

Some committee member comments:

Sup Ratcliff: Conference room should have the ability to be made private, i.e., no all glass walls or fishbowl effect.

Sup Young: Would like access to a reservable smaller conference space for smaller group meetings.

They would like flexibility in meeting spaces. Is there a way to make larger conference space into two smaller meetings spaces if needed?

Kitchen and dining area should be warmer, more inviting than current one. With microwave, coffee pots, and refrigerator.

Mailbox area should have places for supervisors to sit and read, alight for a period of time.

Sup. Ratcliff: Would like to consider a place to securely store bags and valuables when supervisors leave office for periods of time.

H. Future Meeting Items and Dates

There will be no May 16th Executive Committee meeting because of the remote meeting at the new East District campus.

The next committee meeting will be on June 6th at 5:00 p.m.
