Initial Discussion and Possible Action on Planning for Nonpartisan Redistricting Process

Thurlow discussed key dates for the 2021 redistricting process, and pointed out that the County Board elections for 2022 will be influenced by the outcomes of the 2021 redistricting process.

Next Steps:

- The Executive Committee will have a standing agenda item to take up the redistricting process questions in upcoming meetings of the committee.*
- The Co Bd Office will create a FAQ sheet regarding establishing redistricting process for the 1/23/20 Executive Committee meeting.*
- The Executive Committee will begin to lay out a process regarding establishing the number of supervisory districts (based on state and county regulations).*
- The Executive Committee needs to further define and clarify the eligibility requirements laid out in 2016-OA 32 for the redistricting commission and process.*
- The Executive Committee needs to hear from the public on the issue--Perhaps through POLCO to gather public input on redistricting topics of concern. Executive Committee will work on drafting some POLCO questions.*
- The Executive Committee needs to establish how the County Board will accept the work of the Redistricting Commission.*
