

Community Restorative Court

Examples of different types of community service requirements from processed cases

- Mentoring and tutoring young men;
- Participation in Project Respect sessions;
- Volunteer at Goodman Center
- Volunteer at Tenant Resource Center
- Volunteer at Heartland Animal Farm
- Volunteer at Centro Hispano
- Volunteer at St. Vincent DePaul
- Volunteer at Fountain of Life
- Volunteer at Boys and Girls

Most of these involved a requirement of service of 15 to 30 hours

Other examples:

- Letters of Apology to Victims, Police, Store Clerks
- Research papers on 1) youth violence, 2) vandalism and crime trends in a particular neighborhood (where the respondent or offender committed criminal damage to property); 3) the harm prostitution does to the community and residents
- Public presentations on first amendment rights and the possible consequences of protest.

Also, some respondents have paid restitution ranging from $100 to $400.

Crc examples of community service requirements