To Whom it May Concern,

We have reviewed the conditional use permit and have no concerns regarding it's contents. We have had no complaints with how Jon has been operating under his conditional use permit. The property has always been neat and organized. There have not been concerns regarding traffic or noise.

We also find it very convenient to have Jon work on our vehicles. There have been several occasions where Jon has helped us repair vehicles without having to lose time at work. We have found Jon to be a good neighbor and is very helpful.

Sincerely,

Bob Schultz
