Dear members of the City County Homeless Issues Committee

My name is Evy Gildrie-Voyles. I live at 202 Farley Avenue in Madison, Wisconsin. I am writing in support of the Homeless Bill of Rights. It is crucial that people without homes are seen as full human beings with the right to privacy, personal property, and self employment. I ask you to recommend that the city of Madison and Dane county adopt the Homeless Bill of rights and respect all the right of all people to privacy, personal property, and the pursuit of legal self employment unimpeded by harassment and burdensome requirements.

With Gratitude,
Evy Gildrie-Voyles
