To whom it may concern,

I can personally attest to the generosity and community- mindedness that Kevin (and Jessica) Hahn bring to the Brooklyn / Oregon community. He has generously donated product from the quarry for projects that I have been personally involved in, and is happy to help connect people and network in a positive way within our local community. Their professionalism and work ethic is noted by anyone around them. I support the work they are doing at the quarry and the way they are using their resources to help others.
