PRIMROSE CENTER

The Primrose Center is being constructed on the footprint of the original family farm barn that was blown down around 1980 one year before I bought the farm and moved into the old homestead with my wife and family. It is being built as a traditional timber frame building using 150-year-old white pine timbers, which came from the Menomonee forest. I intend to use the new timber frame building to house a limited family business, which would promote the following activities:

1. First floor: Crop and wood storage, shop, farm equipment tool and implement storage, agricultural uses;
2. Second Floor: A dance and movement studio offering dance lessons as well as yoga and Pilates training; a cultural events center offering small inside dance, education, music, art and cultural events including video and music recording, film showings, lectures, conferences and community meetings.

The use of this building will be in harmony with the existing Primrose agricultural community. The first floor will be primarily used to support and expand the agricultural productivity of the 68-acre farm. Currently the main agricultural crop is cherry, oak and walnut harvested from the farm's 18-acre wood lot. Approximately 6,000 board feet of oak, walnut and cherry are drying in an existing solar kiln with another 5,000 board feet of eastern white pine currently stored on the first floor of the building along with farm machinery and related tools and equipment. This space is also intended to be used to expand farm activities to the 23 acres of adjacent crop land which is currently being rented out to a neighbor to grow forage and grain crops.

The second floor will be used as a dance studio and cultural and education center with a broad range of activities for the community and the public. All music, dance, film, education and cultural events will occur on the second floor. These will be small and unobtrusive events given the limitation of the 1800 square foot space available for this purpose. There will be two or three outside lights for the purpose of illuminating stairways and entrances to the first and second floors. There is more than enough adequate parking on the premises for all students and guests on site which will obviate the need for any parking on Highway U. Water and sanitary facilities will be needed for the use of students and guests.

No cultural events or gatherings will in any way disturb the neighbors or endanger health and safety. All the activities and events will comply fully with the 6 required standards of all Conditional Use Permits. Dance, yoga and Pilates training and educational events will occur during daylight and early evening hours. All dance, film and cultural activities will be held inside the building, which will have 6 inch, insulated walls and not be expected to continue past midnight. The building is set back from Highway U by a least 500 feet. There is only one neighbor within a half-mile radius, which is located directly across Highway U and set back at least an additional 250 feet from the road centerline.

There will be a maximum of one employee, no outside trash containers or loudspeakers. There may be a small sign placed near the mailbox along Highway U to mark the entrance to the driveway and parking area.
