D. Presentations

1. Dane County Budget Presentation - Joe Parisi, Dane County Executive, & Lynn Green, Dane County Human Services Director

Green thanked Chair Murray and the Commission for their work. The 2019 DCDHS budget is $13 million less than 2018 due to completion of Family Care transition and removing all waiver revenue from the budget. Some grants were lost but we were able to backfill to keep programs. There were no staff layoffs, no cuts in purchased services and some minor expansions. She highlighted programs that pertain to sensitive crimes. Dane County Executive Parisi and the County Board added over $6 million to DCDHS.

County Executive Parisi expressed appreciation to members for their work. He highlighted the following: Journey Mental Health mobile mental health crisis unit expanded, two new CPS positions to work with families that workers are concerned about but don't meet the definition to screen in, CRC expanded, county workers received a 3.5% pay increase, POS received a 3.5% administrative increase, a new program leader position at NIP to focus on sex trafficking, added a trauma social worker position at NIP, housing advocate to work with youth, JFF eviction prevention fund increased by $50,000, increased Planned Parenthood funds for education, added another JFF worker, and another senior case manager. The County Board added $20k to the Rape Crisis Center for prevention education, added two additional program leader positions at NIP to address community violence, $20k to Outreach for a transgender advocate, and increased Rainbow House funding by $70k.

There was discussion about:

- The trauma response team for county staff and whether it could be expanded to POS.*
- Addressing trauma for children with intellectual abilities as they are highly targeted for sexual assault.*
- Developing affordable housing in Dane County and the need for support services to go with it.*
- Need for crisis housing.*
- Challenges with increase in juvenile crime.*
