

Projects Not Recommended for Funding

Organization/Project	Project Summary	Priorities Addressed	Target	Direct Impact	Indirect Impact	Requested
Memorial High School Latinos Unidos - Sueños sin Fronteras (Dreams Without Borders) Latinx Festival	Latinos Unidos is hoping to host a Latinx Festival at their school with dance, music, food and other festivities. They want to promote inclusion of the Latinx community by highlighting commonalities and differences. They will be playing Latin music, dancing, celebrating food and presenting about their language and cultures.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities	Students and staff at the school	400 students	None listed	$1,380
La Follette High School Black Student Union	La Follette BSU members will be traveling to Georgia to increase exposure to different college opportunities, providing an environment with other students that look like you. They will visit colleges and historical sites while in Georgia.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, youth transitions to post-high school options	La Follette HS students involved in BSU	40 students at La Follette	75 students (including other schools attending - East and Memorial)	$3,000
Verona Area High School BSU	Group's goal seeks to ensure the social, emotional, and intellectual development in members of color at VAHS and the neighboring communities. Group is seeking money for an educational trip to DuSable Museum in Chicago, a college tour trip, events with community guest speakers, BSU t-shirts, and a senior celebration.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities	Black/African American high school students at VAHS	30-50 BSU members	None listed, but could be families, teachers, and peers of the youth in BSU	$3,000
Bayview Foundation's Service Squad and Kindness Club	The Service Squad and Kindness Club gives youth in the after school program a chance to give back to the surrounding community through service projects. Service Squad conducts youth-driven service-learning activities on a weekly basis for middle and high school youth. Kindness club does similar activities, but is designed for elementary youth aged 6-11. They have many upcoming projects planned for people experiencing the Homelessness, trauma informed crafts for The Rainbow	Food security and homelessness, Educational support and accessibility, and awareness and inclusion of racial/cultural identities	Youth in Bayview's After School programs	30 youth aged 6-18 who live at Bayview	Those being served through the service projects. In addition to the families and peers in the Bayview community	$1,800
Memorial High School Black Student Union - Annual Historically Black Colleges and Universities Spring Tour	The Memorial High School's Black Student Union fosters community empowerment and unity among African American students as well as its minority counterparts. The BSU provides an outlet for African American students to voice their opinions and implement positive change through events and awareness. Their annual Historically Black Colleges and Universities Spring tour will include 7 schools throughout Georgia. This experience will allow	Youth transitions to post-high school options and Educational support & accessibility	African American students grades 9-12 at Memorial High school	30-35 youth members	Other Memorial High school youth, families of those who attend the trip, teachers/staff at Memorial, and community	$3,000
Edgewood High School Focus Club - Backpacks for Change	Backpacks for Change will provide backpacks filled with toiletries, snacks, and activities (ie: coloring books) to The Becon and Briar Patch Youth Center for distribution into the community.	Food security and homelessness	Homeless youth of the Madison area	80 homeless youth	None listed	$900
Madison East Black Student Union	The Madison East BSU project aims to allow students to experience new colleges that show them being the majority rather than the minority. The BSU is asking for funding for their Spring HBCU tour in Atlanta, Georgia. Funding will allow students who may not have the financial ability to attend, the opportunity to go.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, youth transition to post-high school options, and educational support and accessibility	9th-12th grade youth involved in BSU at Madison East HS	Approximately 25 students who attend the trip	Youth participants and their families	$3,000

Projects Not Recommended for Funding

Organization/Project	Project Summary	Priorities Addressed	Target	Direct Impact	Indirect Impact	Requested
Middleton HS - Latino Student Union and Black Student Union	Middleton HS LSU and BSU will be traveling during spring break to Texas to expose students to enrichment opportunities that build self-identity, empowerment and academia. They will be visiting multiple colleges and historical parks.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, youth transitions to post-high school options	Youth participants in Middleton HS LSU and BSU	40 students	None listed	$3,000
Los Soñadores Club / Dreamers Club of Waunakee High School	Group focuses on Latin X leadership group that focuses on current event issues, post-secondary exploration, and community networking/mentoring. Club was born out of the need for representation for the limited LatinX population in Waunakee. The club also provides support to children going through DACA process. Group plans to take tour a bilingual tour of Madison College, and build leadership skills and empowering each other through mentoring.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, youth transition to post-high school options, and educational support and accessibility	Middle and High school LatinX student	25-35 middle school and intermediate school youth	None listed, but could be families of the youth, and teachers and staff at the youth's school	$1,300 or $1,373
RISE (Raza and Indigenous Student Empowerment)	RISE hopes to give presentations to local peers, families and community members about their learned experiences, engage in shared learning and expose RISE leaders to local and national activists. They will also host a workshop to educate teachers.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, environmental issues	High school youth and teachers	Madison East students and teachers	High schools around Dane Co	$3,000
Girl2Girl	The Girl2Girl proposal asks for funding for their youth-lead group that meets Monday evenings throughout the school year. Many activities take place, including journaling, discussion of study habits, time management, sleep, and physical activity. Youth meet with mentors to help guide them through their youth/teen years.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, physical and mental health resources and education, youth transitions to post-high school options	Female and non-binary youth ages 13-18	8-10 active members	Family and community members	$3,000
Transition Academy; Goodman Community Center - Closing the Gap: Through Photos, Films and Stories	The Closing the Gap project is a new project where teens at Goodman will interview, video and take photos of community members to share in a gallery viewing event in June 2020. The will collect footage of day-to-day life in the community to share with others.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, food security and homelessness, educational support and accessibility	Teens of all genders, ethnicities and lower-level income	20-30 youth in the Transition Academy, 50-100 youth in the surrounding neighborhoods	100-200 community members attending the event, and an infinite number of people via the internet.	$2,275
Meadowood Youth - Find Your Path	Find Your Path is a funding proposal designed to assist Meadowood youth in discovering their origins/ancestry through a DNA kit. This will lead to research about their cultures and planning for a community event to celebrate their roots.	Awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities	Black youth of African descent	10-25 participants	Parents/families of youth, classmates of youth and the surrounding community	$3,000
Monona Grove High School Band - Jazz Band Clinicians	The band is asking for funding to help expose students to the music genre of jazz. They would like to bring in expert jazz musicians to help teach students and enrich their knowledge of jazz music, thus adding to the band's overall experience.	Physical and mental health education and resources, awareness and inclusion of racial and cultural identities, educational support and accessibility	Jazz band students	75 students	None listed	$2,000

Projects Not Recommended for Funding

BYFY 19-20 Proposal Summary

Organization/Project	Project Summary	Priorities Addressed	Target	Direct Impact	Indirect Impact	Requested
Glacier Creek Middle School Black Student Union	BSU is an active student group which sponsors cultural and social events, provides leadership opportunities, and encourage networking among ALL students. Black Student Union enourages unitiy, inspires leadership and asserts dignity. Activities include school dances, talent shows, presentations/activities during Black History Month, meetings, social gatherings, museum trips, and fundraisers.	Awareness and inclusion of racial & cultural identities and Educational support and accessibility	Students from Dane County area and Elver Park Community. The BSU is open to 12-14 year olds (7th and 8th graders).	Typically have 15 students who participate, most students are lower income	Families of the youth, and teachers and staff at the youth's school	$3,000