C. Presentations

1. NAMI Presentation

Lindsey Wallace from NAMI gave a presentation about what NAMI does. They were also a part of the SIM workshop as community members. Ms Wallace also gave an overview of Crisis Intervention Training (CIT).

NAMI is working on CIT training for Dane County Dispatchers. They will have a meeting later in the year with EMS and Fire. There is a condensed training that was given to Dispatchers. In 2018, they will be doing 11 CIT trainings.

Supervisor Corrigan inquired about the outcomes of the training. NAMI is finding that the trainees are gaining increased confidence.

Clark-Bernhardt inquired about how the effort will be sustained. National recommendation for law enforcement is to have 20% of officers trained in CIT; MPD and Sheriff's Office have exceed this.

\*Judge Colas arrived at 12:34 p.m.*

2. Sequential Intercept Mapping Debrief

K. Peterson Thurlow gave an overview of the draft SIM report that included a video, objectives, and nine recommendations.

\*Gloria Reyes arrived at 12:50pm*

P. Saeman, a member of MOSES registered to speak about his experience at the SIM training.

Chair, S. Corrigan commented on the training – suggested that subcommittees or work groups might be helpful. She also asked for staff to look into the possibility of workgroups/subcommittees to work on the recommendations from the SIM training.

K. Peterson Thurlow requested that the CJC review the document and provide comments.
