E. Reports to Committee

1. Dietitian Program Update

Meal program update: CFS will continue to work with us until we have new caterers in place. There's not a definitive end date. We'll know more once the bids come in with the RFP next Thursday.

NWDSS –upon given the opportunity to obtain their own caterer to work directly with, they have formed a catering agreement with the Piggly Wiggly in Cross Plains to provide their congregate and HDMs. Their start date to move from CFS providing catering to Piggly Wiggly providing catering is TBD at this time, but looks like it should be within 6-12 weeks.

SSM Health – Continues to provide meals to all HDM recipients in the City of Madison and Monona. Next week, the last area is transitioning over to Goodman Community Center, which is where all the meals will be coming from moving forward.

Nutrition Counseling: To date this program year, I've worked with 27 individuals and completed 53 counseling hours. Referrals for counseling are coming from senior centers/focal points advertising my services in their newsletter and from my ad in my nutrition newsletter that goes out to all senior nutrition meal recipients. Nutrition counseling trending topics include: Prediabetes, Diabetes management, weight loss goal to obtain a double knee replacement, dementia causing weight gain, cholesterol management, unintentional weight loss

Senior Farmers' Market Voucher Program

Last year we had 695 voucher sets to distribute and we were able to send out 619 sets. Redemption rate was only 42%. The lowest in the state. This year, we're hoping that the improvements to the program will increase that redemption rate.

- Voucher set amount went from $25 to $35
- Each adult age 60+ can receive a set of vouchers vs. each household

Because each adult in the household can now receive their own set, we are receiving even more vouchers to distribute this year: 740 sets.

Anyone that received vouchers last year will be automatically receiving an application this year. We're receiving calls/emails to add people to the mailing list. Cindy and I are mailing applications out the week of May 8th. Vouchers get mailed the week of June 1st.

2. Healthy Aging Program Update

Stepping On, Mind Over Matter, Stand Up and Move More, Healthy Living with Chronic Pain – are the current classes we're offering this year. The interest for zoom classes has stayed really high, so that's how we've been offering MOM and Stand Up. Stepping On has moved to in-person only.

Because of ARPA (COVID relief funds) all Stepping On classes are free of charge this year – instead of charging $35 and the other classes request a suggested donation of $15.

3. Chair & Staff Updates

-Helen Pan, from AAA Board, and Dave Genson, NewBridge Nutrition Program Volunteer, have both volunteered to be on the committee. This will go in front of the AAA Board to be approved on May 1st.

GABRIEL shared two new members who would be joining the committee at the June 7 meeting.
