Chair Miles indicated that he had discussed Supervisor Andrae's three program evaluation proposals with her and that she indicated that proposals 2 and 3 were not ready for evaluation as several issues were pending. And she was amenable to holding off on proposal 1.

Staff indicated that the La Follette Capstone project that is currently underway, and that will focus on equity in recruitment, retention, and promotion, should provide useful updates to recruitment, retention, and promotion data that can then be used by the selected program evaluation. That data will be available by end of May. Staff will work on preparing the program evaluation process so that a selected program evaluation vendor can begin work after the Capstone project is completed and updated data available.

The committee agreed on selection of Miles' proposal for a program evaluation of county department-wide employment demographics, workplace environment/work climate, and workplace equity.

A motion was made by MILES, seconded by VELDRAN, that the Miles proposal for a program evaluation in the Action Item be selected and gave direction for staff to conduct the process for the program evaluation topic selected for 2023. The motion carried by a voice vote.
