F. Reports to Committee

1. Pretrial Forum Report

McNamara and Meuer presented a proposal for an evidence-based pre-trial services program in Dane County to the council. They spoke of the need for a risk assessment tool. McNamara and Meuer urged the council to establish a subcommittee to develop the proposal for a program. Discussion ensued regarding the experience of other counties, whether an assessment tool may prompt more people to be in jail, and the impact on the budget. The importance of evidence based practice in being competitive for future funding opportunities was noted.
