This agenda item was moved to the October meeting when the other new Commissioners will be present.

2. Update on BYFY Funding & Recruitment

Benson explained the By Youth For Youth Grants partnership and the current funding situation given the departure of long-term funder Oscar Mayer. At this point, the County and United Way have committed to contributing an additional $4000 to support the program. Additional City funding is pending. United Way continues to pursue a private sponsor to replace Oscar Mayer. Recruitment for the BYFY committee will commence after school starts. An application will be used this year to give teachers and others a tangible form to share with youth who are interested.

3. Two Open YC Seats - at large and youth

The Commission has a youth and adult at-large seat open. Applications to Commission seats can be found on the Dane County web page.

4. Update on projects identified at the last meeting

- a) DCYA presentations to Rotary and other business groups
- b) Youth Pass
- c) Consideration of new ideas

a) DCYA presentations to Rotary and other business groups—no report given the absence of Davis and Maniaci.

b) Youth Pass—Westermeyer explained the concept. No movement since last meeting on vetting the idea given summer conflicts.

c) Consideration of new ideas—none put forth

5. Report on Commissioner Advocacy Activities Since Last Meeting

Benson reported that Public Health will be releasing a comprehensive reproductive health report that includes DCYA data. Nichols reported that community schools are active with committees identifying priorities. Leopold and Mendota elementary are the pilot school community sites.
