Minutes - Final Unless Amended by Committee

Community Justice Council - Behavioral Health Subcommittee

Consider:

Who benefits? Who is burdened?

Who does not have a voice at the table?

How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?

Office of Justice Reform Director Colleen Clark-Bernhard presented on how the subcommittee worked collectively on the 2019 Sequential Intercept Model training in the past and prioritized its work, as a potential model for building on the work of the 2024 SIM training.

Discussion ensued regarding:

The upcoming practice of having subcommittees report to the Community Justice Council on a quarterly basis.

The usefulness of an updated resource guide to behavioral health resources. NAMI and the Dane County Mental Health Collaborative have versions of this resource that could be useful.

Surveying subcommittee members to identify the highest priorities from the SIM, and then forming small teams to address the issues and report to the full CJC-Behavioral Health subcommittee.
