Minutes - Final Unless Amended by Committee

Community Justice Council - Racial Disparities Subcommittee

Consider:

Who benefits? Who is burdened?

Who does not have a voice at the table?

How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?

C. Action Items

The Community Justice Council Executive Committee has requested that the Community Justice Council Racial Disparities Subcommittee consider addressing efforts on the reentry and reintegration components of the Community Justice Council Strategic Plan.

Chair Mbainai moved to postpone the scheduled action item until after the presentation. There was no objection, and the agenda was adjusted accordingly

Following discussion, a motion was made by Middleton and seconded by Sparkman for the subcommittee to formally focus on the reentry and reintegration aspects of the Community Justice Council Strategic Plan. The motion was adopted at 1:08 PM

Pearson made a motion, which was seconded by Hamdan to contact the Council of State Governments to obtain additional information regarding a potential partnership and to explore any associated costs. This motion was made at 1:09 PM.

D. Presentations

Director Colleen Clark-Bernhardt provided framing for the request by the Community Justice Council Executive Committee. She conveyed that the Community Justice Council Executive Committee has requested that the Community Justice Council Racial Disparities Subcommittee focus some effort on the reentry and reintegration components of the CJC Strategic Plan, and why this work may be suited to the Community Justice Council Racial Disparities Subcommittee

Valerie Carpico and Jesse Kelley of the Council of State Governments delivered a presentation on the Council of State Governments Reentry 2030 initiative. The presenters explained how this initiative may be used to address issues related to reentry and reintegration in Dane County

Reentry 2030: A Framework for Cities and Counties, Building Safer, Stronger Communities Through Reentry 2030.

Presented by Valerie Carpico, Jesse Kelley and Susan Gottesfeld as presenters, Council of State Governments Justice Center.
