

Outreach Services

J. Purpose

- a. Dane County Library Service, develops and delivers library services to residents who experience barriers in accessing traditional library services.
- D. Outreach Services were initiated by DCLS in 1974 in accordance with the Wisconsin Administrative Code (pl 6.06) and the Wisconsin Public Library System Standards, 1974, Section III/E,F.
- __DCLS strives to serve the broadest possible number of institutions and individuals, restricting only when necessary to maintain the program's integrity, and minimizing unrecoverable losses of materials.

III. Program Description and Operational Policies

- A. JHomebound Services.
  - a. Individuals residing in Dane County whose physical condition confines them to their residence are eligible to receive homebound delivery of library materials.
  - b. Homebound patrons may request specific materials to be mailed on an established schedule according to a reading interest profile.
    - i. Materials will be delivered by U.S. Mail;
    - ii. Library material for the blind and physically handicapped (as defined by the U.S. Postal Service) has no mailing cost;
    - iii. DCLS pays postage TO the patron for regular print materials; the patron must pay to return the materials.
    - iv. Information requests are filled by the Outreach Librarian.
  - c. Loan periods for materials are addressed in the Circulation Policy.
  - d. Homebound card holders are not assessed overdue fines and are responsible for lost or damaged material per the Circulation Policy.
- B. Facilities serving the elderly and those with physical disabilities
  - a. Large print books (except where regular print is requested) are available to facilities serving the elderly, or persons with physical or mental disabilities. Examples include senior living facilities and community-based residential facilities. These facilities may be located anywhere in Dane County outside the city of Madison.
  - Agencies receiving deposit collections are also eligible to receive programming resources as part of their deposit collection.
  - Materials are delivered on a monthly schedule; the receiving institution must prepare the returning collection for pick-up. Quantity and format of materials varies according to the needs of each agency's clients or residents. Books and material for individual use are to be returned on the next delivery date.
- Library Services for the Blind and Physically Handicapped.
