

2024 Funding for Community Response and Preparedness

June 6, 2024

Scores

Applicant	Average Score
Madison Area Care for the Homeless (MACH) OneHealth, Inc. dba Madison Street Medicine	95
Journey Mental Health Center	90.5
United Way Dane County	88.5
Meadowood Health Partnerships	84.5
Kennedy Heights Community Center	58.5

APPLICATIONS
RECOMMENDED FOR FUNDING

Madison Street Medicine: $14,000

PROGRAM SUMMARY

Funding to allow the opening and operating of a tornado shelter, as well as provide outreach support in preparation of bad weather.

FUNDS

Support staffing, cab rides, and supplies.

Journey Mental Health Center : $14,000

PROGRAM SUMMARY

Funds to support the purchase and installation of a generator to ensure the continuity of critical mental health and substance use services during emergencies.

FUNDS

Generator and installation expenses

United Way of Dane County : $14,000

PROGRAM SUMMARY

Support to develop a Spanish language option for their 211-resource connecting app. 211 connects users with resources including food, utility assistance, mental health and addiction, legal aid & immigration, healthcare, crisis help, transportation, and disaster response

FUNDS

Contractual services to develop the Spanish 211-app

Meadowood Health Partnerships: $14,000

PROGRAM SUMMARY

Host regular community talks that educate residents about emerging health threats and other natural disasters to support community resilience.

FUNDS

Staffing, marketing/outreach, and supplies for attendees

Kennedy Heights Community Center: $14,000

PROGRAM SUMMARY

Support community preparedness and response to emergencies, crisis, and natural disasters, including air quality emergencies and extreme heat mitigation

FUNDS

Staffing and emergency supplies

