Participants have up to 1 year to complete their community service through prosocial activities.

The presenters reviewed the demographics of the program and reported that from 2021-2022, the program saved 1,044 jail days and 7,961 community service hours were performed, saving over $300,000 since 2019. They also discussed restorative justice and victim choice, fines, and the need to expand the coordinator role due to program expansion and court utilization. Additional resources would be beneficial.
